VINEYARDS & WINERY

CHEERS TO ANOTHER HARVEST SEASON!

The 2022 harvest has officially come to an end here in Sonoma and all of our new wines are tucked away in their barrels for winter. This harvest season presented some challenges with an intense heat spike the first week of September, followed by a rain event. This caused some uneven ripening in certain varietals and led us to swiftly get fruit off the vine before the threat of the fruit quality declining. Overall, the 2022 vintage was bountiful and will produce excellent wines.

This shipment includes a great selection of wines to enjoy this holiday season, beginning with our rich and creamy Patrick's Chardonnay, this will make an excellent pairing with roast turkey or buttery mashed potatoes. The other selections are a mix of versatile reds that will pair excellently with holiday classics: the smooth yet structured Robert's Pinot Noir, a classic Sonoma County Zinfandel and the terroir driven Gravel Bed Cabernet Sauvignon.

Our Sebastiani team is happy to assist you with any of your holiday gifting needs, we have great options available for purchase online and in our tasting room, including gift packs, magnums and library vintages. Please contact us at 707-933-3200 or visit our website Sebastiani.com.

We wish you a great holiday season filled with great food and wine. If you're in the area, don't miss our Holiday at the Estate weekend December 3-4 for festive décor, a seasonal food bite and holiday fun!

Cheers,

Mark Beaman, Winemaker
